

Sarah [Booth] Osgood

Sarah [Booth] was born, probably in England. She died 08 April 1667 in Andover, MA. She was a spinster by trade. She married John Osgood on c. 1627, who was born in Wherwell, England on 23 July 1595, and died 24 October 1651 at Andover. Her daughter in-law was Mary Clement, who was jailed for six months during the Salem witch trials in 1692.

Further Reading:

New England Historical and Genealogical Register, Vol XIII, 1859, p284; vol XX, 1866, p25.

A Genealogy of the Descendants of John, Christopher, and William Osgood, Eben Putnam, 1894.